PROHIBITING HARASSMENT, INTIMIDATION AND BULLYING ON SCHOOL PROPERTY, AT SCHOOL-SPONSORED FUNCTIONS AND ON SCHOOL BUSES

Prohibition of Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying (HIB)

The Board of Trustees and the administration of St. Joseph’s School for the Blind prohibit acts of harassment, intimidation or bullying of a student. The Board of Trustees has determined that a safe and civil environment in school is necessary for students to learn and achieve high academic standards; harassment, intimidation or bullying, like other disruptive or violent behaviors, is conduct that disrupts both a student’s ability to learn and a school’s ability to educate its students in a safe environment. Since students learn by example, school administrators, faculty, staff and volunteers will be commended for demonstrating appropriate behavior, treating others with civility and respect, and refusing to tolerate harassment, intimidation or bullying.

Definition of Harassment

St. Joseph’s School for the Blind establishes that “harassment, intimidation or bullying” (HIB) means any gesture, any written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic communication (communication transmitted by means of an electronic device, including, but not limited to, a telephone, cellular phone, computer or pager), as defined in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14, whether it be a single incident or a series of incidents, that is:

a) reasonably perceived as being motivated either by any actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical or sensory disability, or
b) by any other distinguishing characteristic; and that
c) takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, on a school bus, or off school grounds, as provided for in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-15.3, that substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students; and that
d) a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, that the act(s) will have the effect of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property; or place a student in a reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property; or

e) has the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or
f) creates a hostile educational environment for the student interfering with a student’s education or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.

Student Behavior

St. Joseph’s School for the Blind expects students to conduct themselves in keeping with their levels of development, maturity and demonstrated capabilities with a proper regard for the rights and welfare of other students and school staff, the educational purpose underlying all school activities, and the care of school facilities and equipment. St. Joseph’s School for the Blind believes that standards for student behavior must be set cooperatively through interaction among the students, parents/guardians, staff, and community members, producing an atmosphere that encourages students to grow in self-discipline. The development of this atmosphere requires respect for self and others, as well as for School community property on the part of student’s staff and community members.
St. Joseph’s School for the Blind believes that the best discipline is self-imposed, and that it is the responsibility of staff to use disciplinary situations as opportunities to help students learn to assume and accept responsibility for their behavior and the consequences of their behavior. Staff members who interact with students shall apply best practices designed to prevent discipline problems and encourage students’ abilities to grow in self-discipline. Board policy requires all students in the School to adhere to the rules and regulations established by the School and to submit to such disciplinary measures as are appropriately assigned for infraction of these rules.

The Principal or his designee shall provide to students and their parents/guardians the rules of the School regarding student conduct, and the policy shall appear in all publications of the school’s comprehensive rules, procedures and standards of conduct.

Response to Identified Incidents

The Board of Trustees authorizes the Principal of the school to define the range of ways in which school staff will respond once an incident of harassment, intimidation or bullying is confirmed, and the Executive Director shall respond to confirmed harassment, intimidation and bullying, according to the parameters described below and in this policy. St. Joseph’s School for the Blind recognizes that some acts of harassment, intimidation or bullying may be isolated incidents requiring that the school officials respond appropriately to the individuals committing the acts. Other acts may be so serious or parts of a larger pattern of harassment, intimidation or bullying that they require a response either at the classroom or school building or by law enforcement officials. Consequences and appropriate remedial actions for a student who commits an act of harassment, intimidation or bullying may range from positive behavioral interventions up to and including suspension or removal from St. Joseph’s School for the Blind, as permitted under N.J.S.A. 6A:14-7.7 Termination or withdrawal from a receiving school and N.J.S.A. 6A:14-2.8 Discipline/suspension/expulsions.

In considering whether a response beyond the individual is appropriate, school officials shall consider the nature and circumstances of the act, the degree of harm, the nature and severity of the behavior, past incidences or past or continuing patterns of behavior, and the context in which the alleged incident(s) occurred. Institutional (i.e., classroom, school building) responses can range from school and community surveys, to mailings, to focus groups, to adoption of research-based HIB prevention program models, to training for certificated and non-certificated staff, to participation of parents and other community members and organizations, to small or large group presentations for fully addressing the actions and the school’s response to the actions, in the context of the acceptable student and staff member behavior and the consequences of such actions, and to the involvement of law enforcement officers, including safe schools resource officers.

This policy and the code of student conduct shall apply to instances when a school employee is made aware of alleged harassment, intimidation or bullying occurring off school grounds when:

- The alleged harassment, intimidation or bullying has substantially disrupted or interfered with the orderly operation of the school or the rights of other students; and either
- A reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, that the alleged behavior will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or damaging the student’s property, or placing a student in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his person or damage to his property; or
- has the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or
- The alleged behavior creates a hostile educational environment for the student by interfering with a student’s education or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student.

Retaliation

St. Joseph’s School for the Blind prohibits a Board of Trustees member, school employee, contracted service provider who has contact with students, school volunteer or student from engaging in reprisal, retaliation or false accusation against a victim, witness, one with reliable information or any other person who has reliable information about an act of harassment, intimidation or bullying or who reports an act of harassment, intimidation or bullying. The consequence and appropriate remedial action for a person who engages in reprisal or retaliation shall be determined by the administrator after consideration of the nature, severity and circumstances of the act, in accordance with case law, Federal and State statutes and regulations and district policies and procedures.

False Accusations

Consequences and appropriate remedial action for a student found to have falsely accused another as a means of harassment, intimidation or bullying range from positive behavioral interventions up to and including suspension or expulsion, as permitted under N.J.S.A. 18A:37-1, Discipline of Pupils. Consequences and appropriate remedial action for a school employee found to have falsely accused another as a means of harassment, intimidation or bullying shall be disciplined in accordance with School policies, procedures and agreements. Consequences and appropriate remedial action for a visitor or volunteer, found to have falsely accused another as a means of harassment, intimidation or bullying shall be determined by the school administrator after consideration of the nature and circumstances of the act, including reports to appropriate law enforcement officials.

Dissemination of Policy

The Board of Trustees requires the Executive Director to annually disseminate the harassment, intimidation and bullying policy to all school employees, contracted service providers who have contact with students, school volunteers, students and parents who have children enrolled at St. Joseph’s School for the Blind, along with a statement explaining that the policy applies to all acts of harassment, intimidation and bullying, pursuant to N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14, that occur on school property, at school-sponsored functions or on a school bus and, as appropriate, acts that occur off school grounds. The Executive Director shall post a link to the policy that is prominently displayed on the home page of the school’s Website. The Executive Director shall ensure that notice of the school’s policy appears in the student handbook and all other publications of the school that set forth the comprehensive rules, procedures and standards for schools within the school.

The Executive Director and the Principal shall provide training on the school’s harassment, intimidation, or bullying policies to school employees, contracted service providers and volunteers who have significant contact with students. The training shall include instruction on preventing bullying on the basis of the protected categories enumerated in N.J.S.A. 18A:37-14 and other distinguishing characteristics that may incite incidents of discrimination, harassment, intimidation or bullying. The school’s employee training program shall include information regarding the school’s policy against harassment, intimidation or bullying, which shall be provided to full-time and part-time staff, contracted service providers and school volunteers who have significant contact with students.

The Executive Director shall develop and implement a process for annually discussing the school district policy on harassment, intimidation and bullying with students. The Executive Director and the Principal shall annually conduct a re-evaluation, reassessment, and review of the harassment, intimidation and bullying policy, with input from the Social Worker/Anti-Bullying Specialist, and recommend revisions and additions to the policy as well as to harassment, intimidation and bullying prevention programs and approaches based on the findings from the evaluation, reassessment, and review.
